HEAVY VOTE WAS POLLED IN COUNTY PRIMARY SATURDAY

Polling only 435 votes less than were polled in the first primary, Navarro county voters went to the polls strong in Saturday's run-off primary.

The record vote cast Saturday was in the race for county superintendent. Andrew G. Steele and J. M. McClung's 8,791 votes cast in the July primary, W. M. Elliott, unopposed for county surveyor, got the high vote in the first election. The volume of vote Saturday was apparently a surprise to many. Rain fell here early in the day, which kept people from the polls for the first hour or two, but they came as soon as the rain subsided. Again at noon the rain fell in torrents and stopped voting for another two hours, but the sun came out and voting took on a decided impetus for the remainder of the day. People streamed to the polls until closing time at 7 o'clock. The complete count and returns had been gotten from the office of the Daily Sun by 9 o'clock, the quickest time and service that has ever been made in elections here.

The interest in the election was keen, but there was but little apparent activity. Interest in the governor's race, the race for attorney general, State treasurer was keen, and voting was heaviest in the four county races.

Moody carried the county by a vote of 5,303 to Ferguson's 2,901. His majority is 2,402. Moody gained exactly 1,600 votes over the first primary, which gave him 3,703. About 80 per cent of the Lynch Davidson vote went to Moody. Ferguson gained 200 votes, polling 2,703 in the first race and 2,901 in the last.

Claude Pollard carried the county over James V. Allred for attorney general by a vote of 4,756 to 3,400, a clear majority of 1,356 votes.

W. Gregory Hatcher ran ahead of J. R. Ball for State treasurer. Hatcher received 5,243 votes and Ball 2,817. His majority was 2,426 votes.

In the county races Frank R. Lang defeated Mrs. L. E. Hervey by a majority of 291 votes. Young polled a total of 4,313 and Mrs. Hervey 4,022.

Mose Wells was nominated tax assessor over Dock J. Martin by a majority of 568. Wells received a total of 4,335 votes and Martin received 3,767.

George B. Wallace was nominated county treasurer by a vote of 4,396 to Frank Mitchell's 3,724. His majority over his opponent was 672 votes.

Andrew G. Steele, who received the high vote, defeated J. M. McClung for county superintendent. Steele's majority was 728 votes. He received 4,542 and McClung received 3,814.

There were run-offs in eight county boxes for precinct chairman.

For precinct chairman at Petty's Chapel Blankenship appears to have received 44 votes to Tuley's 32. At Currie Craig got 35 votes and Price 24. At Navarro Moore received 89 votes and Tatton 22. At Angus Bailey received 59 votes and Tilton 55. At Bazzette Mills got 73 and Holloman 47. At Rodney Betts got 31 votes and Roloff 24.

The election passed with no untoward incident to mar the hilarity and gaiety of the winning throngs that packed the street in front of the Daily Sun office. The returns were flashed on the screen and magnified into the street.

Vociferous cheering and wild shouting greeted the figures when the crowd's favorites were winning, though wild cheering was frequent the crowds were orderly. The entire block from Collin street to West Sixth avenue along Eleventh street was a sea of faces. The results from the outlying boxes were among the first to come in. The ticket being comparatively short the counts were made rapidly and the service was tip top.

Soda water vendors did a land office business and the restaurants about town showed a Saturday night bulge in their cash registers. Business was flourishing. The result of the races was pitched from the very first. Late figures only made stronger the leads held by the various candidates.

The crowds began to break away and disperse toward midnight. There was not a single disturbance reported. The winners were very much in the majority and the minds of the voters seemed to be all one way.

The vote was larger than most election observers anticipated. The majorities of all candidates were substantial and decisive. Election day was the order of the day Saturday, and the day closed to give the candidates the first relief from the strenuous campaign they had had since the July primary. All losers have taken their defeat in good grace and are congratulating the successful opponents on their nomination. The winners are gracious in victory, and there is a wave of general satisfaction over the election results.

Just here it is but fair to pay a merited compliment and extend appreciation to two important agencies that contributed in a great measure to the comfort of the spectators and the success in receiving the returns for the primary Saturday night. ## FOUR DROWNED AS AUTO PLUNGED INTO RIVER IN ARKANSAS

By Associated Press.

Newport, Ark., Aug. 30.—Four persons were drowned and five members of the same family saved when a small touring car driven by Virgil Porter, aged 21, of Prague, Okla., plunged into the White river at the ferry crossing two miles below here today.

Porter thought the ferry boat was a planked detour and did not know he was on the bank of the river. The dead:

Mrs. Nora Porter, aged 18, wife of Virgil Porter.

Joe Porter, aged 10, his brother.

Ella May Porter, aged 13. Nora Porter, aged 6, his sister.

AUTHORITY ARMY DICTATOR BEING CHALLENGED, SAID

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 30.—A serious situation prevails in Spain. It is rumored that a group of army officers has challenged the authority of General Miguel Primo De Rivera, the Dictator-Premier, who has ruled with a strong arm since September, 1923, when by a coup d'état he overthrew the government of the the roping off of Eleventh street and the clearing of traffic and the assistance of Chief of Police Will Knight and his officers in this matter.

The Southwestern Telephone Company officials promised and all aid possible in the reporting of the returns and the efficient corps of operators were on the job all during the rush period and there was never other than the very best of service. There was no hitch at any time and when a box was slow in coming in these operators lent every possible aid in getting the returns. The local telephone service officials and operators are always efficient, courteous and willing to aid, but this is never made more plain than at primary election time, and is not only appreciated by the management of the Sun, but by the general public interested in the election as well.

Especial thanks are due the following for assistance in gathering and disseminating the returns: The telephone company, the police department, J. S. Roth of the Corsicana Power and Light Company; Mutual Benefit Association; Dickson Electric Company, as well as many who aided in the tabulation of the returns in the office of the Sun, in addition to the regular force.

Mr. Roth looked after the placing of the sheet upon which the returns were flashed, as well as rendered important electrical assistance; Mutual Benefit Association loaned their building for the hanging of the sheet, and the Dickson Electric Company aided in stringing special wires and lights.

NEW NAVARRO COUNTY JAIL

Above is a picture of the new Navarro county jail recently completed at a cost of $86,300. It is three stories in height, of light gray brick and modern in every respect. The jail was built under the direction of the Commissioners' Court, with County Judge Warren Hicks taking much interest in the building. It was built without a bond issue or the issuance of deficiency warrants.

Marquis of Alhucemas.

No details of the situation have reached London, although it is indicated in dispatches from the Franco-Spanish frontier that the Spanish railways have been put under civil guard and that three Spanish warships have sailed for Tangier, the international zone in Northwest Morocco, which Spain recently has demanded should be given over entirely to Spanish rule.

Information coming out of Spain in recent months has indicated that a revolt against Primo De Rivera's rule was afoot. As recently as Friday a dispatch from the Spanish frontier in France said that it had been learned that a change in the government was imminent at any moment. Another dispatch reported unrest among the Spanish artillery and engineers corps because of the Premier's method of promoting officers by election instead of se- niority.

The Southwestern Telephone Company officials promised and all aid possible in the reporting of the returns and the efficient corps of operators were on the job all during the rush period and there was never other than the very best of service. PASSING THE BUCK.

In their embryonic form the chamber of commerce, business men's luncheon clubs, trade associations, the civic club, and other related community organizations were looked upon with suspicion and distrust by those who did not belong to one of them. Because they did not know what they were for, the non-members believed them for selfish gain.

Within recent years community clubs and associations have experienced an amazing growth in numbers and membership. At the same time they have earned the public confidence. Both the growth and the public approval were the fruits of service to the community.

In winning the confidence of the public the civic bodies have gained a victory for the community in that their programs for civic improvement are no longer obstructed by forces alien to them. But the victory has erected a new obstacle, one that is perhaps more formidable than the first. This new barrier to community progress is the feeling that the community is safe in the hands of the civic organizations, so the public needs no longer concern itself with community problems. The public's lack of confidence has been transformed into over-confidence. The community-at-large is playing the old army game of passing the buck.

This was the inevitable outcome of the effective service the chamber of commerce, luncheon clubs and other civic bodies have given the community. The public confidence they hold is deserved, but it is neither fair nor desirable that the several associations should bear the whole burden of civic betterment. They should work with the public, not for it. It may be easier for the non-member class to allow the member class to do all the "building" and give all the "service," but it is not the best thing for the non-member class and for the community.

Group and inter-group co-operation have been established. Let group and individual work hand in hand with but a single purpose—community service.

WORDS AND VOCABULARIES.

It is not easy to appreciate how the spoken word has simplified intercourse of humanity until one wanders into a foreign land where a strange tongue prevails. How to be understood and unable to understand has been the despair of the world traveler and the immigrant throughout the ages since man first learned to exchange ideas and thought by word of mouth. With the exception of a few mutes, and perhaps a still undiscovered tribe of savages, all the world is now in communication through words. If a man cannot write, the most illiterate and uncivilized can at least talk and be understood.

Although the whole world can be said to be in mutual conversation, yet it can also be said that hardly two individuals have the same number of words at their command for speech or writing and that man's stock of words extends from a few hundred for some to high in the thousands for others. Shakespeare is reputed to have had a vocabulary of 30,000 words. Several of the Victorian poets used vocabularies approximating in size that of Shakespeare. The new world knowledge, science, inventions and discovery has given several modern writers vocabularies exceeding 40,000 words. But in marked contrast to these large vocabularies is that of the average man and woman. This average vocabulary has been variously estimated from 500 to 1000 words. The more illiterate use less than

The tragedy of words lies not in the distressingly limited vocabulary of the average individual but in the opportunities for large vocabularies, offered but ignored. Though striving to write to the average man, the newspaper uses words unknown to this average reader, thus offering to that reader a daily opportunity to enlarge his or her stock of words. "The path of glory leads but to the grave" today as when Gray wrote that immortal line in his "Elegy." Each year that line is enacted in life once, twice, many times. Some of those who have known glory in life will live after death in their works. Others no less famous, while living, would be grieved stricken if they could see how quickly their names and deeds are effaced from the public memory.

Time will not efface from the public memory the name and works of Dr. Charles W. Eliot. The good and faithful servant is immortal. Dr. Eliot was such a servant in the realm of education and thought.

The president emeritus and former president of Harvard University was not a pendant, neither can it be said that he enriched man's fund of knowledge through research or original conception.

His services was of another, but no less valuable kind. The English-speaking peoples of the world are indebted to Dr. Eliot for carrying the message of learning and thought to the masses, raising, thereby, the educational standards of these peoples. He succeeded in inspiring thousands with the desire to acquire knowledge by making knowledge and study attractive to them.

THE DOCTOR.

Considerable comment has been made on the fact that a man now 104 years old was rejected as "not strong enough" when he tried to enlist in the Union Army in the Civil War. It is taken by many as "another joke on the doctors." But so far as the facts given are concerned, there appears to be no warrant for that conclusion. When he volunteered the man was around forty years of age, and he was also may not have been in his normal condition at that time. The army doctors may have meant no more than that at the time he offered himself he was not fit.

To be sure there have been instances in which some doctors have been fooled. But this brings up the question: "What kind of doctors?" There are doctors and doctors. No thoroughly trained and conscientious modern doctor will tell a patient or his friends that he will not get well until the last grounds for hope are removed. They may tell many a person who is neglecting his health that if he does not give attention to it he will not live much longer—and that is one of the most important services that the family doctor or any other reputable physician can render. Those who follow the advice may become centenarians. It may have been the advice given him by the army doctors that enabled the man in this case to pass the century mark.

The main thing is to make sure that it is a reputable physician that is consulted. There are many more persons who fool themselves than fool the doctor of the right kind. When a reputable physician tells those seeking his advice to give attention to their health the counsel would better be heeded without delay.

Courtesy is just a subtle business of leaving the other fellow's sense of importance undisturbed.

The tragedy of words lies not in the distressingly limited vocabulary of the average individual but in the opportunities for large vocabularies, offered but ignored. Though striving to write to the average man, the newspaper uses words unknown to this average reader, thus offering to that reader a daily opportunity to enlarge his or her stock of words. Few are willing to grasp this opportunity. The dictionary, encyclopedia and thesaurus have now been brought within the financial reach of all. There will always be some with more words than others, just as there will always be some with more money.

CHARLES W. ELIOT.

"The path of glory leads but to the grave" today as when Gray wrote that immortal line in his "Elegy." Each year that line is enacted in life once, twice, many times. Some of those who have known glory in life will live after death in their works. Others no less famous, while living, would be grieved stricken if they could see how quickly their names and deeds are effaced from the public memory.

Time will not efface from the public memory the name and works of Dr. Charles W. Eliot. The good and faithful servant is immortal. Dr. Eliot was such a servant in the realm of education and thought.

The president emeritus and former president of Harvard University was not a pendant, neither can it be said that he enriched man's fund of knowledge through research or original conception.

His services was of another, but no less valuable kind. The English-speaking peoples of the world are indebted to Dr. Eliot for carrying the message of learning and thought to the masses, raising, thereby, the educational standards of these peoples. He succeeded in inspiring thousands with the desire to acquire knowledge by making knowledge and study attractive to them.

TWO IMPORTANT MATTERS TO BE DISCUSSED AT SPEC-IAL MEETING TUESDAY

The first annual Navarro county B. Y. P. U. convention was held at the First Baptist church Sunday. Paul E. Harper presided and was elected president of the county organization. A committee was appointed to select the next meeting place. The county was also divided into zones and zone meetings will be held quarterly, the place of meeting to be selected later.

A special program had been arranged for the all day service. The morning hours were taken up with the welcome address, reports of the B. Y. P. U. in the Association and an address by L. H. Tapscott, associational B. Y. P. U. worker. Rev. J. Howard Williams, pastor of the church delivered the main address of the morning.

Lunch was served picnic fashion in the basement of the church by the Woman's Missionary Union of the church, with Mrs. C. A. Middleton as chairman.

There were 106 visitors in the departmental conferences in the afternoon. These conferences followed addresses by W. M. Haynes of Corsicana who spoke on "What the B. Y. P. U. Means to a Christian"; Rev. W. A. Corkern of Kerens, who spoke on the subject "Church Financing the B. Y. P. U." and F. L. Hopkins of Dawson who discussed "The B. Y. P. U. and Systematic Giving to the Church."

Following is the program: Morning Session: 9:30—Adult Sunday School—C. A. Middleton, Supt. 10:10—Demonstration Program. 10:45—Welcome Address. 10:55—Reports of B. Y. P. Art And Utility Combined
In the New Fall Shoes

Your first impression when you see the new shoes, will be that they're truly artistic. Decorations following the lines of the shoes lend exceptional charm.

Then you'll notice the cut of the oxford or strap or pump—that they go higher on the foot—that fill-ins take the place of cut-outs, that art and utility are both delightfully apparent in these new Fall shoes.

POLICE FORCE OF CORSICANA HAD BIG WEEK END BUSINESS

The police force were kept busy Saturday night and over Sunday by several law infractions and the numerous automobile crashes that took place about the city. There were two speeders who not only were guilty of speeding, but ran through the traffic signals as well. Three other car drivers failed to observe the traffic signals. One was charged with reckless driving. One was charged with simple drunkenness, while another was charged with being drunk and beating his wife. He was taxed heavily by Judge Melear.

Other matters that occupied the attention of the officers was a reputed mad dog killed on West Second avenue. A negro was knocked in the head at the Piggy Wiggy No. 1 corner, but no one seemed to know who did it. The officers were unable to get anything on it. A woman reported someone taking chalks from a church on Fourteenth street, but no one was found there when the officers answered the call. Dr. Suttle reported the motorometer stolen from his car, while parked at his home during the night.

There were numerous auto accidents that called the officers out while Officer Bruce Natt arrested a negro for burglarizing a home just north of Zion's Rest, when a razor, ring, wrist watch and other articles were taken.

Two men, one from the oil field and the other from Frost, figured prominently in a fight with one of the employees of the Wadley Cafe on North Beaton street late Saturday and as a result both have paid fines and suffered considerably while the Wadley employee suffered the loss of a tooth, black eye and a cut place over the left temple.

It is stated that the two men were raising a rough house at the restaurant when the Wadley employee took one out with a waller and proceeded to administer thrashing to him. The other hit him with a closed knife inflicting the wound over the temple.

The two men were fighting when they were put out of the restaurant. Both paid fines for fighting.

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Clowe Floral Company, the following officers were elected: H. A. Clowe, president and manager; W. A. Mowlam, vice president; Mrs. H. A. Clowe, secretary and treasurer. New stockholders in the company are Mrs. W. A. Mowlam and Mrs. Annie Clowe Hudson. The company enjoyed a very successful year and it was voted to start the erection of two new greenhouses in the near future.

The election of the new officers was made necessary by the death of William Clowe, who was head of the organization for years.

LEGISLATURE MAY PROBE ANYTHING IT MAY DEEM PROPER

GOVERNOR LEFT WAY OPEN FOR INVESTIGATION ANY DEPARTMENTS

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, Aug. 30.—When Governor Miriam A. Ferguson issued her proclamation July 26, 1926 calling the 39th Legislature into special session September 13, 1926, she made it possible to investigate any department of the state government that the legislature may desire to make.

The proclamation, which was filed with the secretary of state, before being announced, is all that was necessary to convene the special session, according to law, but the governor notified each member of the legislature that the session had been called, according to employees in her office.

The proclamation as filed reads: "I, Miriam A. Ferguson, Governor of Texas, do hereby call the Legislature of Texas to be convened at the State Capitol in the City of Austin on the 13th day of September, 1926 for the following purposes:

"To pass necessary and proper legislation that will validate and legalize State, County Commissioners' Precinct and Special Road District Bonds or securities whose validity has been brought in question by the decision of any state of federal court, or otherwise. And to cure any defects in the issuance of said bonds or securities, or to provide by proper legislation to make valid bonds or securities binding and valid debts and obligations of the authority issuing the same."

"To make such investigation of any department of the State Government that the Legislature may desire to make."

"To consider any other subject or matter which may be submitted to said special session by the Governor."

"Done in the City of Austin this, the 26th day of July, 1926.

(Signed)
MIRIAM A. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

HOTEL AND OFFICE BUILDING PLEDGES BEING COLLECTED

Subscribers for the $15,000 Lyman Davis Bonus are paying up their pledges promptly at the First National Bank, and from all indications the full amount of the pledges will be paid by Sept. 1. As the bonus will be due Mr. Davis on Sept. 1, it is very urgent that all subscribers call at the bank and take up their pledges. The bonus committee has turned the bonus notes over to the First National Bank for collection, which is now active in making collections, and it is hoped to have the entire bonus collected by Sept. 1, at which time the money will be turned over to Mr. Davis.

The contract with Mr. Davis was to the effect that the $15,000 bonus was to be paid him in full on Sept. 1, and since Mr. Davis is living up to his contract with the bonus committee and has called for the bonus, it is up to the individuals who made pledges to the bonus fund, to pay up promptly.

HERO OF NAVAL AVIATION KILLED WHEN LAND PLANE FALLS INTO AIR POCKET

By Associated Press
Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—The Navy today mourned one of its later day heroes, Commander John Rodgers of the San Francisco-Hawaii flight.

The aviator of distinguished naval lineage, who kept his sea plane afloat nine days when adrift in the Pacific, plunged less than 100 feet to death in a land plane yesterday.

The plane struck an air-pocket, side-slipped and dropped into the Delaware river, a short distance from the navy yard field, where he was about to land.

His mechanic, Samuel Schultz, of Philadelphia, was in the naval hospital today with a broken back and physicians feared that he would not recover.

Most witnesses say that the plane fell probably less than 100 feet into four feet of water.

En Route to Conference.

The Commander was en route from Washington to attend a conference with other naval officers and to inspect a partly finished new type of airplane in which he contemplated making a 3,000 mile flight. He had circled the landing field once and was descending to make a landing when the machine dropped nose first about 100 feet from shore.

Officers, sailors and marines rushed to the rescue. Schultz had loosened the straps that held him to his seat, and was working to release Rodgers when help came.

The heads of the two flyers were just above the water.

"Easy boys," Rodgers said as his rescuers tried to lift him free of the wreckage. "I'm caught somewhere."

The engine of the plane lay partly on the commander's chest and one leg was caught in the wreckage.

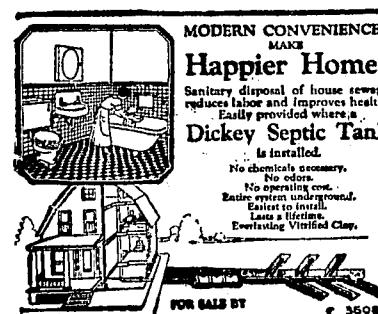

The plane had to be taken apart to extricate him. He died two hours later. The heavy engine had crushed his chest, broken ribs and punctured his vital organs.

Game to the End.

The Commander was conscious almost to the end. "He reminded me of some of the men I treated at the front," said Lieut. Commander F. E. Loucy of the naval medical corps. "Sometimes a man would be thoroughly conscious and would ask for a cigarette. Then, before you could get it lit for him, he would die. That was the way it was with Commander Rodgers. He was game to the very end."

Realizing that he was fatally injured, Rodgers asked that his mother, who lives at Haverhill, be business visitor in Corsicana Saturday afternoon.

FOREIGN MINISTER NICARAGUA BRINGS CHARGES IN NOTE

By Associated Press
Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 28.—The Nicaraguan government has sent a note to Mexico declaring it has irrefutable evidence that Mexican authorities equipped, armed and manned with men in Mexico's military service an auxiliary ship of the Mexican navy, the Concom, which sailed from Salina Cruz on August 17 on a filibustering expedition to Nicaragua.

The note, which is signed by Foreign Minister Navas, says the expedition was arranged by Nicaraguan exiles and financed and supported by the Mexican government. It declares such action manifestly violates the principles which govern civilized nations and which Mexico had repeatedly determined as a fundamental principle of its international policy.

"Nicaragua," says the note, "though a weak nation, knows how to defend, even with sacrifice, this menace to its independence and sovereignty, and it leaves to your government the grave responsibility that shall fall to it before the world and history for such illegal conduct."

A copy of the note was sent to the League of Nations and all foreign diplomatic and consular officials in Nicaragua. The government in sending the protest to the League of Nations said it desired to call the attention of the world to the alleged illegal acts of Mexico. It is reserving the right to make claims in the future against Mexico.

The protest of Nicaragua to the League of Nations is the first Latin-American dispute to come before it, and has led to the question what the attitude of the League shall be toward controversies arising on the American continent. The covenant of the League prohibits the League taking any action which would affect the validity of the Monroe doctrine.

Mexico is not a member of the League, but advises from Geneva, that the secretary general of the League, Sir Eric Drummond, has sent copies of the protest to all members of the organization and to Mexico as well.

It is provided by the covenant that non-members of the League shall be invited to accept the obligation of membership when a dispute arises between members and non-members. Nicaragua has requested no specific action by the League, but the organization is desirous of hearing both sides of the controversy. If there should be an appeal for an investigation by the League Council of Nicaragua's charge that Mexico flagrantly violated the rights of the Nicaraguan republic by use of force, the council would carry this out and make resolutions. If Mexico then refused to accept temporary membership in the League and resorted to war, the League penalty against an aggressor state would operate against her.

Mexico Makes Denial.
By Associated Press
Mexico City, Aug. 28.—"The League of Nations has nothing to do with Mexico, and Mexico has nothing to do with the League of Nations," said Foreign Minister Saenz today.

He referred to announcement that Nicaragua has protested to the League against an alleged filibustering expedition sent to Nicaragua from Mexico to aid the revolutionists in the Central American Republic.

Senor Saenz added that the Mexican government had no knowledge of any Mexican interference in the Nicaraguan revolution and said that if any individual Mexicans were there as revolutionists or munitions runners all President Chamorro had to do was to capture them and seize the munitions. "It is entirely Nicaragua's affair, and the Mexican government had nothing to do with it," Senor Saenz declared.

Marines Landed Bluefields.
By Associated Press

Washington, Aug. 28.—Two hundred American soldiers and marines have been landed by the cruiser Galveston at Bluefields, Nicaragua, to protect foreign life and property.

The landing was made after the Nicaraguan governor at Bluefields had informed the Galveston's commander that the Nicaraguan government forces were in no position to guarantee protection of life and property against a revolutionary force which is marching upon Bluefields.

Latest reports from American official sources, Nicaraguan sources, indicate that the revolutionists' attack of Bluefields will be successful.

HEAVY RAINFALL CORSICANA BEFORE 1 O'CLOCK SATURDAY

According to the government gauge 1.93 inches of rain fell here Saturday morning and Saturday at noon.

The rain was of a local nature, however. Surrounding towns reported from light to heavy showers early Saturday morning. At noon the heaviest rain fell in Corsicana and near the southern edge of the city.

Only light showers fell in the northern part of the county this morning and also at the noon hour. Rice reported the heaviest rain in the northern part of the county and only a heavy shower fell here.

R. L. Abbott of Sherman was in Corsicana today.

OLD FEUD GIVEN AS CAUSE KILLING FARMER AND HIS SON IN RUSK COUNTY ROAD

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR BIGGEST CROP YEAR SINCE 1919

By Associated Press
Henderson, Texas, Aug. 28.—When Huff and his son, Kelly Huff, who reside in the southern part of Rusk county are dead, and Will Britton, a neighbor, is under arrest here charged with the double killing.

The men were killed yesterday afternoon, according to information gathered by Henderson officers the trouble resulted from an old feud. The son was killed when he attempted to remove his father's body, officers said.

Britton, it is said, was passing Huff's farm in a truck when the feud flared up anew, Britton using a shot gun at close range. Huff's son then went for a truck to take his dead father home and in passing Britton was himself shot to death.

Officers stated that Britton then snapped the gun at another son, but found it unloaded. He then entered another farmer's house to obtain a gun and when the latter attempted to recover the weapon was threatened by Britton, according to reports to officers.

Britton stated that Huff had blocked the road and when he stopped that Huff approached him and that at that point he picked up his shot gun and fired.

Gains in employment were reported in many of the districts major industries.

While some cities report a surplus of building tradesmen, there was a shortage of cotton pickers in some sections.

The review comments favorably on the increase in feed crops in this district, declaring that the farmers will have ample feed with which to make their 1927 crops.

Symptoms and Was "Greatly Relieved."

Starkville, Miss.—"I have been a user of Black-Draught for about twenty years," says Mrs. C. E. Bunting, of R. R. D. 5, this city.

"I used Black-Draught first for constipation," continues Mrs. Bunting. "I would feel dull, stupid and have severe headaches, even feverish. I had an uneasy, tight feeling in my stomach.

"I read quite a bit about Black-Draught. I began using it and soon my bowels acted regularly and I was greatly relieved. I used it every once in a while for about eight years.

"About two years ago I found I was having indigestion, a tight smothering in my chest, then severe pain, especially after eating sweets. I commenced taking just a pinch of Black-Draught after meals and by doing this I could eat about anything.

"I gave Black-Draught to my children for colds and headaches. I can certainly recommend it."

Theford's Black-Draught is recommended by thousands of others for the relief of indigestion, biliousness and simple ailments due to constipation. Safe, easy to take. Costs only 1 cent a dose. NC-171

Wire Wheels

The Ford Motor Company is offering their latest development the new ELECTRICALLY WELDED WIRE WHEEL with drop center rim as optional equipment for an added cost of $30.00.

This is a one piece welded wire wheel that has the strength and durability of the heavier type wheel while actually weighing 36 pounds less for a set of five wheels, than a set of four wood and metal wheels and an extra rim. This reduced weight adds greatly to the roadability of a car, reduces the unsprung weight and saves gasoline.

The New Ford WIRE WHEELS in attractive colors harmonize with the New PYROXYLIN finish of the Ford CLOSED CARS making a distinctive turn out not elsewhere obtainable in the light car field.

Unseen Sources of Long Life

The basic sources of automobile value are not always apparent to the eye.

A motor car, like a house, may LOOK a great deal more substantial than it really is.

Because of this difficulty, more and more thousands are turning to Dodge Brothers product for insurance against disappointment.

The years have proved, and each year proves anew, that Dodge Brothers are as deeply concerned with the UNSEEN goodness of their motor car, as with the seen.

The mileage it will deliver, the safety it will provide, the expense and trouble it will save the owner over a period of years, are quite as important to Dodge Brothers as the more obvious details of equipment and style.

By Associated Press.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 30.—Dan Moody, 33 years old, was prepared to return to his office as Attorney General of Texas Monday, to spend a busy four months before he formally assumes the reins of Governor following his victory Saturday in the Democratic run-off primary over Governor Miriam A. Ferguson by a majority of approximately two to one.

Moody, after having devoted the most of the past two months to campaigning, announced that he now intends to give his attention to pressing the prosecution of a suit in which the state is seeking to recover $421,000 in alleged excess profits from the Hoffman Construction Company, highway contractors.

The Attorney General maintained his ratio of lead over Governor Ferguson as returns Sunday were added to those reported Saturday night.

When the Texas Election Bureau ceased tabulating returns for the night at 8 p. m. Sunday, totals in the gubernatorial contest unofficially were 469,182 for Moody and 247,100 for Ferguson. The total vote in the primary is estimated at between 750,000 and 800,000.

Statements were forthcoming from the camps of both candidates on the day following the election, although Governor Ferguson remained silent, permitting his husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, and her campaign manager, Guy Holcombe, to speak for her.

"My wife is a good sport," was former Governor Ferguson's description of Mrs. Ferguson, when asked how his wife was taking her defeat. He philosophized at length, observing that "within the next six months, Moody, besieged by the hungry boys with tongues hanging out for favors, will realize that being Governor is not one continual round of pleasure."

He intimated he was not ready to reply when asked whether the outcome meant the termination of
